Tomorrow, November 30th, will be a remarkable day for interior designers and architects. The biggest forum, marketplace, design show, call it whatever you'd like, will open doors at Meridian Avenue & 19th Street, near Miami Beach Convention Center, USA. The public show will run from 12pm to 8pm, so you shouldn't schedule anything around that time.

This upcoming week will be a great opportunity to get in touch with the visionaries of the industry and contemporary designers from Art Basel Miami that also starts this December 1st right across the street. Design Miami 2016 is all about museum-quality furniture, lighting and curated exhibitions for the highest level of private and public collectors. It will be the perfect place to meet and admire exceptional design objects which the finest design galleries in the world carefully selected for the event.

One of the galleries we decided to talk today is Patrick Seguin. For those who don't know, Galerie Patrick Seguin has been promoting demountable houses by Jean Prouvé for over 25 years and currently presents his largest collection. The architecture of these houses is a "constructional philosophy", a free aesthetic of functionality and fabrication that is integrated with the aid of designed systems that allow modification, dismantling and moving of the structure. The perfect house for today's kind of living, and you actually may have the opportunity to see them up close this week.

Galerie Patrick Seguin is currently located in Paris and London and lives to promote the works of leading designers such as Jean Prouvé, Charlotte Perriand, Le Corbusier and Jean Royère. Each one of them are individually creative, talented and unique. Jean Royère is the expert of bright colors and organic shapes, Le Corbusier an impressive town planner and architect, and Charlotte Perriand a woodwork magician.

Design Miami 2016 counts with one of the best exhibitors list ever seen. To admire Galerie Patrick Seguin's work is not an everyday possibility, for that reason, organize some free time and enjoy the exceptional art at your feet.
