Charlotte Perriand x Saint Laurent exhibition at Galerie Patrick Seguin

EXHIBITION

Charlotte Perriand x Saint Laurent*, curated by Anthony Vaccarello at Galerie Patrick Seguin

Everyone knows a fashion designer's inspiration seldom comes from the medium their work is confined to. Take Anthony Vaccarello at Saint Laurent for instance, a designer who has made his appreciation for Charlotte Perriand known many times in the past year alone; first at Milan's Salone del Mobile and now as part of Art Basel Paris. Revelling in Perriand's contribution to design beyond interiors, Galerie Patrick Seguin will present a collaborative exhibition in Paris paying tribute to not only Yves Saint Laurent's admiration for the work of Charlotte Perriand (whose pure modernity echoed his own creations) but Vaccarello's own appreciation too. The gallery will do this by bringing Perriand's never-before-seen designs to life, reviving models that previously existed solely as prototypes or sketches and reproducing them on a made-to-order basis so that Perriand's legacy can be continued well into the 21st century.

Open to the public from 24 October until 22 November, 2025.
